

Wild Water Racing workshop

Registration form

10am to 4pm, 23rd April 2012. Free.
Canalside Activity Centre, Canal Close,
Ladbroke Grove, London W10 5AY

This workshop is open to any British Canoe Union (BCU) member or affiliated to a BCU Club/Centre within the London Region. Max 20 people. Tea and coffee will be provided, but please bring a packed lunch and paddling gear. Boats and equipment will be supplied.

Name _____

Address _____

Postcode _____ Date of birth _____

Phone number _____

Email _____

If you are a member of any London Canoe Clubs or Centres, please list them below:

Can you swim 25m? Yes No

Are there any medical conditions the staff should know about? (e.g. severe asthma, epilepsy, etc.)

Please state:

Person to contact in an emergency:

Name _____

Telephone _____

Relationship of this person to you _____

Signed _____ Date _____

Return to
Mackon.Khela@rbkc.gov.uk

Mackon Khela
Canalside Activity Centre
Canal Close, Ladbroke Grove,
London W10 5AY

Wild Water Racing workshop

23rd April 2012
10am to 4pm
Max 20 people. Free

Location:

Canalside Activity Centre
Canal Close, Ladbroke Grove,
London W10 5AY

Would you like to know more about Wild Water Racing (WWR)?

Would you like to enhance this discipline at your club or centre?

Sign up for this free workshop to receive up to date coaching techniques and ideas on how you can introduce and enhance WWR into your club or centre from some of the leading BCU
Coaches within this discipline.

To register a place contact
Mackon.Khela@rbkc.gov.uk

Organised by Canoe England's
London Regional Development Team
<http://canoelondon.btck.co.uk/>

Canoe England
London

